Barnes & Noble® McCammon is one of my all-time favorite authors & he is a "storyteller" of extraordinary talent. Gone South is also a very good story & one that I would love to read a sequel to. Thanks to Mr. McCammon for many many hours of wonderful reading. Boys Life / Gone South: McCammon, Robert: 9780671018832 ... A great story by Robert McCammon. The book has sympathetic characters, some oddities, a road trip searching for a miracle healer, and an uplifting ending. McCammon writes great dialogue, too, and the prose is so descriptive that I felt the heat and humidity of the swamps and bayous. Excellent narration by George Newbern. Gone South (Audiobook) by Robert R. McCammon |

Audible.com 'Gone South' is the final book Robert McCammon completed before his early retirement - and it's a shame, because he was maturing into a writer that had outgrown the 'Horror' label he had given himself in the eighties. writing. Robert R. McCammon - Wikipedia I've just heard that Robert R. McCammon has retired from writing. I am saddened by this because I feel that he was just beginning to find his own very unique voice with his last two books, Gone South and Boy's Life. However, like the characters in Gone South, he has his own path to follow and his own dreams to pursue. Gone South book by Robert R. McCammon I was greatly impressed by McCammon's work and also intrigued to find an unusual departure from his very high standard horror yarn. 'Gone South' is a moody and atmospheric journey through both America's Deep South and also our anti-hero's life, which appears to be disintegrating around him and continuing to deteriorate even
