Love Invents Us Amy Bloom In her debut novel, Love Invents Us, Amy Bloom, a National Book Award finalist for Come to Me has written an unsettling tale of desire. With her finely honed style and her generous, unflinching sensibility, she shows us how profoundly the forces of love shape our lives. In Love Invents Us, a girl becomes a woman; a boy becomes a man; a man grows old and dies; Elizabeth, Horace, and Max know each other, leave each other, and find each other again over the course of thirty years. Love Invents Us – Amy Bloom Love Amy Bloom's creativity and ability to bring characters to life. However, this book was just a little too icky for me. A teenager having a long-term affair with her unsavory teacher - I just couldn't get over that aspect of the book. While I liked a lot of things about Love Invents Us, I much preferred Lucky Us, her newest book.
