Goods Press Room. TIME Magazine Cover: The New Face of America - Nov. 18 ... The Changing Face of Racism in America. As we trudge deeper into the 21 st century, racism in the United States continues to present continuous problems to our society. While the biological conception of race and genetic differences between people with lighter or darker pigmentation is a made-up fallacy, we have nurtured a social hierarchy aligning with it, creating very real consequences. The Changing Face of Racism in America - Digital Commons A lot has changed since 1967, the year that America hit the 200 million mark. At that point, foreign-born residents made up just 5 percent of the population. By 2004, with the advent of legal... The
