away before you do something. I know that this book influenced a lot of other books I've liked. The 3 stars instead of 4 or 5 is partially because of sentences like these: [This] "Higher Self i I was afraid to leave this review, but I did it anyway. Feel the Fear and Do It Anyway by Susan Jeffers You might read twenty books after it, but it becomes one of your "go to" books. The ones you read when you want familiarity; when you just want to get lost in a book you loved. Fear Me became one of those books. Lake and Keiran's messed up, sexed up, f#*ked up romance gave me everything I love in a great story. Fear You (Broken Love, #2) by B.B.
